AN ARTISTIC SHOE.

We have a smart Shoe for young men who want

"THE THING."

In short the young fellows who have seen it say "It's a bird. Got my size?" We say yes, and the sale is made.

Oh, the Price! $3.50.

Well, it's $3.50, but you won't say a word about it when you see the Shoe.

G. B. KITZMILLER.

A Manly Man

Is careful of his toilet and comes to us for his clothing.

We have a large variety of elegant Worsteds, Tweeds, Cheviots, Meltons and Kerseys, and our style is so apparent that it speaks for itself.

HAVE YOU BEEN MEASURED?

FROM NEW CHESTER.

Nov. 18, Married, Thursday evening, November 12, at the home of the bride's parents, Heidelberg, Mr. Chas. M. Stalder, of York, and Miss Minnie M. Honeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Honeck, Ray, W. V. Honeck performing the ceremony. The groom, whose native community is East Berlin, is at present in the employ of a large carriage factory in the city of York. He has been with the firm several years and holds with him a good paying clerkship. The bride is one of the estimable young ladies of the community, having been of friends who wish her much happiness. It is their purpose to make York their future home.

The bride's congregation celebrated the Lord's Supper Sunday morning. The attendance was very large.

The Heidelberg Lutheran Sunday school held Luther day services last Sunday evening, Nov. 17. The offering was for Home Missions.

A company of hunters from New Chester left this morning for the Big Mat, where they will go out camp for about 10 days. Frank March is among the number.

From all appearances there will be much quelling in this locality the coming Spring. Abraham Knickle has rented the Mrs. Slaughter property, recently purchased by Mr. Winters.

FROM ARENDSTOWN.

Nov. 18.—Owing to the change of trains on the G. & H. R. R. our morning mail now leaves at 9:45 and the noon at 3:15 and returns at 12:50 and 7:45 p. m.

I. K. Arendt is remodeling the roller mill and putting in the latest and best ironing order up the last of this month.

Rev. Dr. T. K. Kiser will plant about five acres of the land he bought recently from Edward Kaffenberger with apple trees.

Mrs. Sadie Harmon and daughter, of Mt. Berry spring, are visiting friends.

The concert by the Baltimore Family of Carols, announced for Friday evening, Nov. 22, in the Reformed Church in Arendstown, is undoubtedly postponed.

There will be union services in the Reformed church in this place on Thanksgiving day at 10 o'clock in the morning.

FROM BUCHANAN VALLEY.

Nov. 18.—Blessing C. Cole, and Joseph Strimling, of Ansonia, are visiting at their respective homes in the Valley.

Marion Wyand, of Waynesboro, spent a week as the guest of Jacob J. Cole, his uncle, and family.

Frank Koenigberger, of York, spent a week in the Valley hunting deer, stopping at Jacob J. Cole's.

Mrs. Alice Martin, of Gettysburg, visited last week, Mrs. Elizabeth Tarnaght.

Gary Bramer moved into W. A. Cole's, at Trust, on Monday.

James Hoffman, Miss Myrtle Wolff, and Miss Price, of Chambersburg, were recent visitors at Henry Kimples.

Nice Edith G. Cole and brother Francis, of Wood Lawn Terrace, have gone to York, to attend Business College.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Last Saturday evening a number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perce Plank, in Cumberland township, to give a birthday party to their son, Harry Dennis Plank. The party was composed of the young man, his parents and George Plank and wife, David Schwartz and wife, William Kiefer and wife, David Schwartz and wife, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. Levi Weikert, Mrs. Geo. Black, Misses Alice Schwartz, Sadie Schwartz, Lizzie Bushman, Lillie King, Lillie Schwartz, Lillie Schwartz, Daisy Gutwald, Irene Rider, Mary Rider, Beulah Rider, Ernestine Shattuck, Emma Emory Plank, Chas. Snyder, Geo. Patterson, James Snyder, Jacob Stanley, Howard Schwartz, Chas. Black, Chas. Rider, Geo. Weikert, Claude R. King, Wm. C. Plank, Asper Case and Norman King, and Arthur and Irvin Weikert, of Fairfield.

THE CENTURY.

The chief illustrative feature of the December (Christmas) Century will be a series of four full-page plates, in color, by Maxfield Parrish, accompanying the text of Milton's poem "L'Allegro," one of which forms the frontispiece. The illustrations of several prose articles and poems will be printed in tint, notably those of a paper on book-plates, in which copies of vellum will be reproduced, and those of General James Grant Wilson's "Theaters in the Desert," which will have portraits of the great authors and sketches from his own pen.

The cover, showing angels holding aloft the infant Christ, will be printed in eight colors on a creamy background.

NEURO BOOMER KILLED.

Charles Tate, a negro from Newburgh, N. C., was shot at Hunter's Run last Wednesday night and died instantly.

Two weeks made an attempt to enter the house of James A. Miller. The first time he was driven away, but the second time he burst the door in and demanded money.

Albert Miller, a son, shot the intruder and he fell dead in the doorway.

The Hunter's Run case has interested Miller. He came to Hunter's Run a week ago from Philadelphia.

THE THANKSGIVING PUMPKIN.

ALL on Thanksgiving day, when from East and from West, From North and from South come the pilgrim and guest,

The gray-haired New Englander sees round his board

The old broken trunk of reflection restored,

When the care-worn man seeks his mother's arms,

And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before,

What whispers the lip, what brightens the eye,

What calls back the past, like the rich pumpkin pie?

O, fruit of olden times! the old days are dead,

When wood grapes were purpling and brown nuts were falling;

When wild, wild fays were carved in its skin, and carved through the dark with a candle within!

When we laughed round the corn heap, with the north in its throat,

Our chair a broad pumpkin, our lantern the moon,

Telling tales of the fairy who traveled like steam

In a pumpkin-like coach, with two rats for her team!

Then thanks for thy present! none sweeter or better

Ever cooked from an oven or stirred a platter.

For hands never wrought at a pumpkin pie

Since brighter eyes never watched over its baking than thine

And the prayer which thy mouth is too fast to express

Swells our heart that thy shadow may never grow less

That the days of thy lot may be lengthened and sweet

And the time of thy worth like a pumpkin vine grow

And thy life be as sweet, and thy last sunset golden

Golden and fair as thy own pumpkin pie.

By SOPHIE SWETT.

"Mary Olive, I want you to carry the Thanksgiving pudding over to your Aunt Tryphena's."

"I don't want to," said the girl, "I don't want to carry a Thanksgiving pudding over to Aunt Tryphena's."

"I don't want to," said the girl, "I don't want to carry a Thanksgiving pudding over to Aunt Tryphena's."
